WORKING WITH ORGANISATIONS TO KEEP CHILDREN SAFE

NSPCC child protection consultancy

EVERY CHILDHOOD IS WORTH FIGHTING FOR
All organisations that come into contact with children, at any time, need to make sure they have robust safeguarding arrangements in place. These help to prevent serious repercussions and, most importantly, keep children safe.

Our team of consultants can help your organisation put these systems and processes in place to protect children and staff.

“Working with the NSPCC has been invaluable in assisting us with the development and strengthening of our Safeguarding policies and procedures to work alongside a thorough training programme for our staff.

It was a hugely positive and beneficial experience working with the NSPCC. The consultants were friendly and easy to work with, but, above all, knowledgeable and keen to ensure that every aspect of the work was completed to everyone’s satisfaction.”

“Safeguarding is a very important journey to us. There are always new things that you need to be looking at that need a safeguarding input. We’ve worked with the NSPCC several times in the past to review our processes and procedures. You can commission the NSPCC knowing that when you look at policies or suggest ideas they are something that can actually be implemented and put in place and that’s really important for us.”

Trusted experience

With more than 130 years’ safeguarding experience, we can help you understand the effectiveness of your current policies and procedures. We’ll identify your corporate safeguarding needs, or audit your practice if necessary.

Through our consultancy work with a range of organisations, we understand the child protection challenges you face. And we’re best placed to work with you and offer the best solutions for your organisation.

Understanding your organisation

Our consultants are experts in recognising different needs when it comes to protecting children. They’ve built up a wealth of experience working with some of the most well-known organisations in the UK.

We can arrange a short telephone call or meeting for our consultants to work with you to understand your organisation and how things work in practice. They will identify clear steps to help you better protect children, and can work with you to implement and achieve your goals.

With NSPCC consultants you can be sure of a tailored service designed around best practice, and consistent with UK legislation and guidelines.

We can also offer bespoke packages combining consultancy with our training or a new range of e-learning courses.

Our flexible and comprehensive approach can play a really crucial role in helping your organisation to keep children safe, while enhancing your reputation and confidence in working with children.
